

To whom it may concern: It is my feeling that to let petition 04-160 become policy would do a great disservice to the millions of people who have decided to subscribe to a service that provides the information that we want when we need it. If the broadcast operators would do a better job of providing this information they wouldn't need "protection.